My dear Sir,

Permit me to ask, if, at any time, you ever had a discussion on the Subject of Slavery with Samuel Houston, of Texas? And, if so — Where and Where did it take place, & Whether the Subject of Suicide among the slaves was alluded to? If such a discussion took place — was it reported in the public press, & if so, can a copy be found? A brief reply would much oblige

Yours Very Truly

Lucretia Mott

Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Esq.

Boston,

Mass.

P.S. It is possible, that what I have in mind may have been in a speech, or letter of yours — in which allusion is made to Mr Houston, or reply to some letter, or speech of his —
